

WSF CENTURION CLUB

100+ RAMS. ONE STANDARD.

"WSF Centurion Club" for hunting, the term "Centurion" in the wild sheep community is designed for an elite hunter, guide, or outfitter who has successfully harvested 100 or more wild sheep rams under fair chase conditions. If you are a professional guide/outfitter or hunter seeking to join this 100+ elite club and milestone, please apply today.

1. WSF Membership Requirement

- Active WSF Membership: All applicants must be a Lifetime member of the Wild Sheep Foundation.

2. Professional Guide/Outfitter Qualification

- Primary Guide/Outfitter Role: The applicant must have served as the primary guide/outfitter or lead guide/outfitter on the hunts, directly responsible for the client's success and experience.

3. Experience and Success Threshold

- 100+ Successful Hunts: The core criterion is documentation of 100 or more successful guided hunts for wild sheep. A "successful hunt" is defined as a client legally and ethically harvesting a ram/sheep under fair chase conditions.
- Species & Location: The hunts should ideally focus on North American wild sheep (Bighorn, Dall's, Stone's, Desert Bighorn).
- Ethical Review: All hunts must have been conducted under strict adherence to the principles of fair chase and all applicable hunting laws and regulations.

4. Peer Review and Nomination

- Letters of Recommendation: The applicant is required to provide letters of recommendation from (1) reputable outfitter, (1) fellow guide, and (1) past client who can attest to their professionalism, ethics, and extensive experience.
- Review Board: A review board composed of established conservationists and experienced WSF members will verify credentials.

Submission Deadline: December 1, 2026 (For recognition at the February 2027 Sheep Show®).
