DONATION POLICIES

WSF reserves the right to use this donation in whatever way is deemed most beneficial to WSF.

WSF reserves the right to reject or cancel this donation at any time for any reason. WSF shall not be liable to the Donor for any loss, damage, or expense claimed to have been suffered by the Donor as a result of such WSF does not accept donations with minimum bids.

For those entitled to a return split, be aware that no payment or commission will be paid to the donor until the purchaser has made payment to WSF. Donors whose items have been paid for should allow 6-8 weeks following Convention to receive a check from WSF.

WSF reserves the right to refuse donations if the donor does not exhibit or does not have donation history

ART OR MERCHANDISE DONATIONS

Donors of art or merchandise are required to provide proper packaging and/or crating of their donation to ensure that the item will not be damaged during transportation.

Clothing donations descriptions must include size, color, and whether or not the item can be exchanged.

Donations of high value jewelry (>$5,000) should include an appraisal.

HUNT, TRIP, OR VACATION DONATIONS

WSF does not accept donations for which the sale is contingent upon the purchaser supplying another hunter, or one that requires the purchaser to upgrade the hunt and harvest additional animals. The donor may provide the opportunity for the purchaser to harvest additional animals at their discretion.

Trips or Wilderness Vacations must be for at least 2 people and for a minimum of 2 days.

All hunts or trips outside North America must be for a minimum of 5 days. Donations including a minimum of 2 people (either 1 hunter/1 non-hunter or 2 hunters) are encouraged.

Any additional fees must be clearly noted and the costs estimated.

In order to protect both our donors and WSF, only a limited number of donations from a geographic area are accepted each year. In accepting donations WSF considers the donor's history, including their participation as

Donations of hunt credits are accepted only if the credit amount will allow the purchaser to harvest at least one animal without incurring additional fees and must include meals and accommodations.
