

SEMINARS | JANUARY 12 - 14, 2023

USFWS - TROPHY IMPORTATION

Thursday - Room A5 • 10:30 am - Noon

Moderator: Kurt Alt, WSF Conservation Director - International Programs

Led by USFWS Endangered Species and CITES Management Authority - a must seminar for the international hunter on the current status of the trophy importing process.

PRECISION SHOOTING FOR SHEEP HUNTERS

Thursday - Room A5 • 2:00 pm - 3:00 pm

Tim Glenner was a range Instructor for 30 years for the San Bernardino County Sheriff's Department, teaching long-range shooting to law enforcement and military personnel. In addition, he was also a member of the USA National Shooting Team competing in Running Target. A Capture Specialist for the State of California Department of Fish and Game for 14 years, Glenner worked with deer, elk, sheep, and other game species. A Life Member of the Wild Sheep Foundation, Tim will share his experiences and will address topics including:

- Hunting rifles and calibers for big game species.
- Understanding what you and your rifle are capable of doing.
- Tuning you and your rifle up for hunting season.
- Care and cleaning of your rifle.
- Respect the hunt. Animals deserve the respect of a good, clean, ethical shot.

CAMP CHEF CULINARY CORNER WITH JOSHUA SCHWENCKE

Thursday & Friday 10:30 am - 3:00 pm, Saturday 10:30-2:00 pm

Direct from South Texas, Chef Joshua Schwencke joins the ranks of Wild Sheep Foundation to offer a wide array of culinary instruction at the 2023 Sheep Show. As a wild game chef and hunter, Chef Schwencke has brought his instruction and knowledge nationwide of taking game proteins beyond the simple chili and sausage recipes and into modern cuisine. Short, micro courses throughout the expo focused on game butchering, knife skills, scientific culinary deep dives and so much more will all lead to a daily macro course centered around preparing wild game at home.

MOUNTAIN TOUGH® WORKSHOP

Training Tactics for Mountain Athletes in their 40s, 50s, and 60s

Friday - Room A5 • 11:00 am - 12:30 pm

Presented by: Dustin Diefenderfer & Jimmy Alsobrook

Join the team from MTNTOUGH Fitness Lab for a presentation on training in your 40s, 50s, 60s and beyond. Maintaining consistent fitness habits is the most important thing you can do to stay in shape and reduce injury. Your body may not bounce back like it used to, but it doesn't mean you need to resign yourself to a lower level of performance. There is no reason you can't be in the best shape of your life as you age, but it's going to take a little more vigilance than it used to.

COLD WEATHER MOUNTAIN SURVIVAL

Friday - Room A6 • 11:30 am - 1:00 pm

Presented by: John Barklow SITKA Gear

SITKA Gear Senior Product Manager John Barklow spent over two decades teaching and developing equipment for US Special Operations troops to survive and thrive in austere mountain environments and continues to develop technical clothing and equipment systems for SITKA.

John will be sharing:

- Four Key Lessons Learned from his experiences
- Understand how the body loses heat
- Survival Priorities
- Cardinal Rules for the Backcountry Hunter
- How to properly test your kit

PRO SERIES MOUNTAIN HUNTING THE WEST & OVERSEAS

Friday - Room A5 • 1:30 pm - 2:30 pm

Presented by: Dan Adler

Come join WSF Life Member and Chadwick Ram Society Member Dan Adler, for an educational and fun seminar designed for all skill levels on the West's most revered species. Dan is the owner/outfitter of Diamond Outfitters of Arizona, one of the largest guide operations in the West and is a long time WSF donor. Dan also is a host for The Best of the West TV, one of the most watched hunting television programs in North America. Dan will cover species like Desert bighorn and Rocky Mountain bighorn sheep, mule deer, elk, Coues deer and more and always saves time for questions and answers. Topics like where and how to hunt, glassing etc. will be covered. Dan is known for his skill (SCI Hunter of the Year AZ 2017) and his humor as he speaks at just about every national hunting convention. Become a next-level hunter, don't miss it!

Q & A WITH REMI WARREN

Friday - Room A6 • 2:00 pm - 3:00 pm

Presented by: Remi Warren

Ask me anything: A sit down Q&A with Remi Warren. This is a chance to have your hunting questions answered. Remi has spent his life in the wild as both a professional hunter and guide. Those experiences have added up to thousands of days in the field. Remi is going to share that knowledge by answering your questions and tailoring the topics to the experience of those in the room

NDOW HUNTER SAFETY COURSE

Saturday - Room A4 • 8:00 am - 5:00 pm

Online registration for the class begins 30 days prior to class date. Students must finish independent study course work before attending the class. Students have three options for meeting the home study requirement; complete the Today's Hunter workbook or complete that required work online. The workbook and Today's Hunter-Nevada student manual (reference for completing the workbook) may be obtained free from any regional NDOW office. Students have two choices of internet course; www.

huntercourse.com and www.hunter-ed.com, with both courses charging an additional fee over the basic $5 class fee. Students must bring their completed workbook or Nevada Online Course Completion Confirmation (printed off the hunter-ed.com and hunterexam.com websites upon successful completion) to the class to gain admittance. For more information and to register go to http://www.ndow.org/Education/Hunter_Ed/Classes/

WOMEN HUNT® PANEL DISCUSSION

Saturday - Room A6 • 10:30 am - Noon

Cami Cunningham, Brooklyn Widdifield
Jana Waller & Kristy Titus

Moderator: Renée Thornton, Chair of Women Hunt®

Four of our communities' most interesting women will share hunting stories, discuss the impact and roles of mentors, explore why young women aren't waiting to hunt what many consider to be a pinnacle species to pursue (and why you shouldn't wait either), and so much more! Join in this lively conversation!

MOUNTAIN HUNTING & GEAR

Saturday - Room A6 • 12:30 pm - 1:30 pm

Presented by: Adam & Cam Foss

Gear selection, care and performance on mountain hunts can make or break not only the comfort of the hunter, but the outcome of the hunt. Lifelong archery sheep hunters and gear addicts Adam and Cameron Foss share their accumulated experience gained from the ultimate teacher - the sheep mountains themselves. Join the brothers as they discuss concepts that will help you decide on the right gear for your next mountain hunt, how to prepare for adventure-based hunts abroad and learn from the many mistakes made along the way.

BEST OF THE WEST - WHY LONG-RANGE?

Saturday - Room A4 • 1:30 pm - 2:30 pm

Presented by: Dominic Pasquale, US Army (Ret.)

This is perhaps one of the most misunderstood and misinterpreted concepts in the shooting industry. Just the term "long-range" comes with its own stigma for many. Before we begin to discuss shooting further and the benefits behind increasing your effective shooting range, we must first define "long-range". The Best of the West defines "long-range" as any target distance that requires the shooter to compensate to engage the target. Whether the shooter is dialing an adjustable turret system or holding over, we would consider this compensation. We know more today about bullets, rifles, and environmental conditions than ever in history. By industry standards, a 1MOA hunting rifle is considered an accurate rifle by today's standards. However, here lies the problem...The ability to compensate for wind is nearly impossible because the accuracy of the rifle is not adequate to replicate a precision shot. With a 1/2MOA accuracy hunting setup and a solid training foundation, your ability to "seal" the deal on your trophy animal will greatly increase. Here's how....

