

Townsend Youth Conservation Award

Award Description:

This award is dedicated in the memory of Butch Townsend, from Wyoming. Butch was passionate and dedicated much of his life to wild sheep. He sat on the Wild Sheep Foundation Board of Directors and was an exceptional supporter of the Wyoming Wild Sheep Foundation. Butch was a visionary. He knew that without kids on the mountain there wouldn't be sheep on the mountain in the future. Thus, wife Kathy and he made considerable investments in putting and keeping kids on the mountain with wild sheep.

This award aims to recognize a youth who has demonstrated and participated in conservation and is in 7th-12th grade as of January of the year the award is presented at Wild Sheep Foundation's national convention the Sheep Show.

Applicant Information:

First Name: _____ Last Name: _____

Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip Code: _____

Email: _____

Phone Number: _____ Age: _____

Chapter or Affiliate of WSF affiliated with: _____

Completely answer the questions on the following pages. Limit answers for each question to 350 words maximum.

1. Ambassadors of wildlife are continually working to improve and preserve the lives of animals and their environments. Explain your interest in why you have chosen to be an ambassador for wildlife.

2. Describe how you have participated in wildlife conservation. This could include volunteer efforts, organizing small or large conservation projects, or any other concept that fits into you helping conserve wildlife.

3. How do you see yourself in relation to conservation in the future? Be specific and perhaps mention a few goals or dreams you have relating to the topic.

4. Inspiring others about conservation is important. Discuss any efforts you have done to help encourage to participate in wildlife conservation or times you have taught others about wildlife conservation.

Email completed application to rbrock@wildsheepfoundation.org no later than August 15.